Building Strong Stepfamilies— A seminar for current or potential stepfamilies, newly divorced, grandparents, counselors and pastors.

Seminar Topics:

1. What is a Stepfamily?

Identifying the unique characteristics of a stepfamily and understanding some statistics relating to stepfamilies and discussing the most effective way to “gently” blend your stepfamily.

2. Your Marriage:
The Priority Relationship

Keeping a healthy relationship with God and your spouse.

3. Co-Parenting and Stepparenting

Developing working relationships between the adults who are involved in the lives of the children.

4. Helping the Kids Adapt

Strategies that will help meet the developmental needs of children in a stepfamily. Taking care of your children during their transition into a stepfamily using age-appropriate strategies.

Goal of the Seminar:

Learn about the unique issues that affect stepfamilies. This seminar is designed for those who are currently in, or will soon be forming, a stepfamily: newly divorced; pastors, grandparents and anyone who wants to better understand these family dynamics. You will learn about the challenges that confront stepfamilies and receive practical help in confidently dealing with the common struggles that stepfamilies face.
